Meeting and Banquet Services

MENU SELECTION

Menus are to be chosen two weeks in advance of the event. We will be happy to customize a menu for your event after consultation with the Executive Chef. Choice menus are allowed for the entrée portion only and are limited to two choices. The higher priced entrée will prevail for the entire group. It is the responsibility of the host to provide the club a table and seating plan with the exact counts of each entrée when giving the guarantee. In addition, each guest must be supplied with a card or ticket indicating their choice. The club will be happy to assist you in planning the menu for your event.

BEVERAGE SERVICE

Beverages will be billed to your account at individual drink prices. The wait staff will serve cocktails from our service bar when there are fewer than fifteen guests in attendance at an event. For parties of fifteen or more guests, a bartender will be assigned at no charge to your account. A fee of $1.50 per person will be charged for a cash bar.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Alcoholic beverages will not be served to any person who is less than twenty-one years of age. Adequate proof of age may be requested. No person at an event may purchase or obtain any alcoholic beverages for persons less than twenty-one years of age. Alcoholic beverages will not be served at your function to any person who appears to be intoxicated. The staff's decision on whether to serve a person will be final. No alcoholic beverages may be brought into the Club House or into any function room by anyone except Club staff and no alcoholic beverages may be taken out of the club house.

GUARANTEE

The guaranteed number of attendees must be received by 12:00 noon two business days prior to an event. This number will constitute a guaranteed minimum which is not subject to reduction. If a guarantee is not received, the guaranteed minimum will be the estimate given when finalizing arrangements ten days prior to the event.

SERVICE

The Union Club of Boston staffs according to the number of guests attending your event. If additional staff is required: service staff, bartenders, carving chefs, coat room attendants or valet attendants, a determined charge will be applied to the total cost of the function. Please consult with the Director of Member Services for more information.

PRIVATE ROOM RENTAL CHARGES

For weekday member events, a private room rental charge of $5.00 per person per meal period ($100.00 minimum) will be added to your account. For weekday member-sponsored events, a private room rental charge of $10.00 per person per meal period ($100.00 minimum) will be added to your account. To qualify as a member event the sponsoring member must be present, the event must serve a social purpose and the event must be paid by the sponsoring member's personal check. For weekday not for profit events, a private room rental charge of $5.00 per person per meal period ($100.00 minimum) will be added to your account. If additional private rooms are requested, a modest charge will be added to your account.

For weekend use of the Club a minimum facility rental fee of $1,000.00 will be charged. Additionally, a $5,000.00 food and beverage minimum is required. Please speak with the Director of Member Services for additional weekend pricing information.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

A fifteen percent House Charge for member events or a twenty percent House Charge for member-sponsored events will be added to all food, beverage, private room, floral and audio-visual charges. The Massachusetts sales tax of five percent will be applied to all food, beverage, and private room charges. All tax-exempt organizations must provide the Club's accounting office with a copy of their tax exempt organization certification prior to the day of the event. If a copy is not received by the day of the event, sales tax will be charged.

DEPOSITS AND CANCELATIONS

The Club may require a deposit for function bookings. Cancellations less than 30 days prior to the event, the Union Club of Boston shall retain the entire amount of any deposit. Cancellations less than 7 days prior to the event will be subject to any costs that the Union Club of Boston has to absorb, such as food already purchased or prepared, plus any non-returnable items or services. The club will make every effort to keep this to a minimum.

AUDIO-VISUAL EQUIPMENT

Audio-visual equipment rental arrangements may be made through the Club. Please place your order with the Banquet Department seventy-two hours prior to your scheduled function. Podium/microphone complimentary; overhead projector and screen $55.00, carousel projector and screen $55.00, LCD projector and screen $100, television and VCR $80.00, flip chart with markers $20.00.

FLORAL DECORATIONS, MUSIC, AND VALET PARKING

Table centerpieces and other floral arrangements may be ordered through the Club. The Club will be pleased to make recommendations for a pianist, harpist, band or a DJ and valet parking upon request.

APPROPRIATE DRESS AND CELLULAR PHONES

"Business casual" (shirts with collar, dress slacks and non-athletic shoes for men and equivalent attire for women) is the minimum standard dress in the Club House, though many male Members and guests will continue to appear in suit and tie. Athletic attire is never appropriate in the Club House. Specific attire may be required for special Club events. Cellular telephones may not be used in any area where other Members or Guests may hear or observe the conversation. If you find it necessary to use one, please do so in a phone booth or outside the Club House.

Please take care to inform your guests of the club's policies.
Our managers are instructed to enforce Union Club procedures.

DECORATIONS

The club can assist with purchasing fresh floral centerpieces or ice sculptures for your event. The club will not permit the affixing of objects to the walls, light fixtures or ceilings without the approval of the manager.

DELIVERIES AND PICK-UPS

Deliveries may be made prior to the event when scheduled with the manager. Hosts wishing to leave anything at the Club following an event must make special arrangements with the manager to pick up the items on the following day. The Union Club is not responsible for any items left in the building following an event.

The Club is Not Responsible for Damage or Theft of any belongings left in the Club prior to, during or following the function. Any damage to the Club or its furnishings during an event will be the responsibility of the host. The Union Club reserved the right to inspect and control all events held on the premises.

No food or beverage may be taken out of the Club. Prices and terms subject to change without notice.
